SCENES OF '43 WHICH

Presenting a panarama of our school as seen by the camera, depicting the little daily incidents which occur throughout the school year to make up a pictorial review of what constitutes Huntington High School.

Casual conversation fills spare moments as students pause between classes.

YOU WILL REMEMBER

Victorious after six hours battle with the books.

Despite the fact that books appear in this picture, these are typical students of H.H.S.

Leaders: Page 7
In this section you will find those who fully realize the importance of education in preparing themselves for a useful role in our modern society.

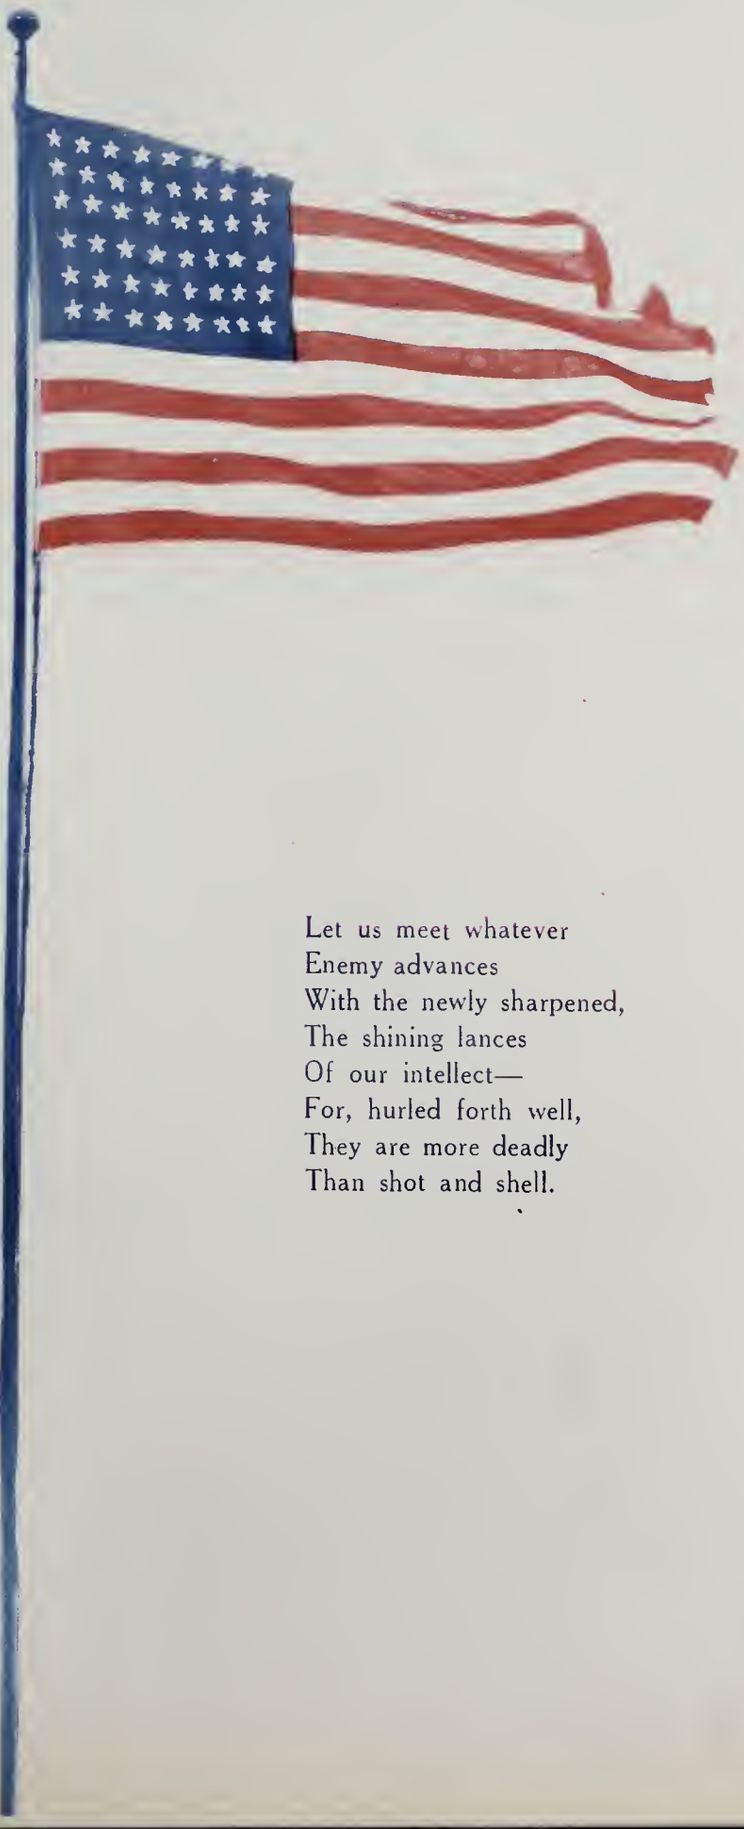
Advisers: Page 33
In this section you will find those who give, those who take, and those who supervise both processes.

Brawn: Page 39
In this section you will find those who take pride in victory and sportsmanship in defeat—the one phase of H. H. S. where brawn holds it own with brain.

Relaxation: Page 53
In this section you will find those who participate in activities where the poor student redeems himself, the good student proves his abilitiy, and the indifferent student displays his indifference.

The American Cause

The Flag . . . whipping proudly from it's mast . . .



Let us meet whatever
Enemy advances
With the newly sharpened,
The shining lances
Of our intellect—
For, hurled forth well,
They are more deadly
Than shot and shell.

CLASS HISTORY

The class of "43", the seniors of H. H. S. this year chose as their leaders Ned Roush, president; Jim Carr, vice-president; Betty Rudig, secretary; and Box Cox, treasurer. Two of these, however, were lost to Uncle Sam. Bob Cox and Jim Carr left for training in the navy and the army, respectively. Jim is at Kenyon College, at Gambier, Ohio, studying meteorology; and Bob is at Indiana University taking a pre-medical course. Besides these two, there are several others from the senior class serving in the armed forces. The others include: Douglas Bingham, Dwight Brown, Vernon Pinkerton, Joe Hale, Ned Hoke, and Dean Krieger. These boys will all get their credits and diplomas.

The senior play given by the class was a rollicking, three-act comedy called "June Mad", which kept the over-flowing crowds rocking with laughter for two nights.

The clever theme of the senior party was "Ship-Wrecked Paradise". Everyone had to dress accordingly, or be fined. For example, boys weren't to wear suits, ties, or polished shoes. The girls had restrictions, too. There was entertainment for all—everything in accordance with a shipwreck.

Magneta and powder blue were chosen as the class colors; the rose, the class flower. The class motto is "Truth never grows old."

JUNIOR HISTORY

The Junior class of "dear old H. H. S." has indeed been one full of originality and initiative. In previous years only the Senior boys have worn class "cords" or, in their case, "yel'ow cords" however, the Junior boys this year created the fad of "red cords." If you don't believe me, just "mozey" down around the bulletin board anytime between classes. Also new this year were the Junior class rings. For the last several years the numbers representing the year of graduation have had nineteen on one side and the rest of the year number on the other. This year the entire number is on both sides.

The candy sellers represented the Junior class at all of the athletic events. The football season started with the Juniors selling candy, pop-corn, and cokes. By the end of the basketball season all they were selling were cokes and pop-corn; however, some ice-cream was sold at the Sectional Tourney. To end the candy sellers' exceedingly successful year, a chicken dinner was served to them by Miss Jennings and Miss Emma Kline's cooking classes on Friday, April 9.

The Junior Class Party was held Friday, April 30, in the high school gymnasium. Music was furnished by a symphonola. It was really "tough;" however, no juke box can put forth music to equal that of "Zeno" Steffy and his ten wolves (at least they're men). The decorations were right in tune with the times since they were patriotic. All in all the party was a huge success and everyone had a wonderful evening. The committees that made this a success were as follows:

Decorations: Dot Griffith—Chairman.
Music: Rex Steffy—Chairman.
Refreshment: Bob Mitchell—Chairman.
Ticket: Ruth Stamper—Chairman.

The biggest event of the year was, of course, the Junior and Senior Reception. It was held May 27th at the Masonic Temple. The banquet was a "push over." That takes in both the speaker and the food. Speaking of food, all of the vegetarians and meat eaters were contented since we had both beans and ham plus all the other delicious dishes. The temple was not elaborately decoratd (patriotic duty), but what part of it was decorated was beautifully done. The dance after this feast was a big success, too, and was well attended. The committee chairmen for the reception were:

Decorations: Dot Griffith
Menu: Marianna Grayston
Invitations: Joanna Brown
Program: Nonnie Ross
Chaperone: Marvelene Hite
Music: Gene Garber

The head officer of the class was that quiet, yet very capable, Don Smiley. He was assisted by:

Ann Bash-Vice President
Patsy Orr-Treasurer
Margaret Sell-Secretary
Lester Gordon-Sponsor

Rin Grossman, president
Coach Williams, sponsor
Gibson Gardner, vice-president

Sophomore History

The so-called "in-betweens" (and I quote from the '41 Modulus) of the student body, the sophomores, are far from that. No one, especially the upperclassmen, seems to realize fully the value of the sophies in the athletic affairs of our school. Just think, all four of our he-men whip-crackers are active on the grueling field of sports. As president, we have a well-filled-out gridiron star, "Major" Grossman; our vice-president is "Gib" Gardner, next year's star hardwood flash; "Clete" Olinger, our treasurer, is that streak of lightning who throws that little round ball in the hoop at every attempt; the secretary, Ed Wasmuth, who is certainly nothing to sneeze at where a deadeye is needed. Ah, but we mustn't forget the spark plug of the first five and only a "mere" second year student—tall, lanky "Big Bill" Bostel. And guess who's the sponsor—none other than our brainy coach, "Bill" Williams. What a team!

With these guiding lights a good time was had by all at the class party.

Freshman History

The freshmen that came in this semester were bewildered; other than just not finding the swimming pool and the fourth floor, their officers were already elected. Don't worry greenies, you will have your chance next fall.

The officers are Joe Burkhart, president; Jo Gilkerson, Vice; Betty Ann Day, secretary; and Bob Carr, Treasurer. We hoped to prove an asset to our H. H. S. and we did with Miss Hazel Cage as our sponsor.

Our party was held late in the season, when nature's greenery was in full dress to match the freshness of our class.

GUIDANCE COMMITTEE
Mr. Perrigo, Director

Guidance

Guidance is a feature that was organized in 1937 with the purpose of giving character, educational, and vocational assistance to the students. At that time it consisted of one counselor, but in 1940 it advanced to four counselors, each having a special class to work with. Besides giving individual guidance, the committee has promoted home room guidance. Advice concerning the technique of getting a job, in making personality adjustments, and in fitting oneself for college, is given.

Mr. Russell Perrigo is guidance coordinator aided by these four counselors: Mrs. Bernice Hillegas, Freshmen; Mr. Bruce Gerdes, Seniors; Miss Emma Kline, Juniors; and Mr. Lester Gordon, Sophomores.

BRAWN

Heroes In The Rough

Although able to win but two victories against six losses, the Vikings found just as loyal a backing at the close of the season as at the start. Coach Bill Williams assumed the coaching duties and as the season drew to an end had a combination on the field that was worth a lot of praise. The chief obstacle at the start of the season was getting a workable backfield combination. Most of the candidates were very light and could not furnish the Vikes with the needed power. However, by the last of the schedule the backfield was sparked by fast-stepping backs who teamed with our rugged line to afford us the needed power to win ball games.

Letters were awarded as follows:

Minor six-inch: Jim Hull, Bill Biehl, Charles Vanner, Bill Mann, Bill Ehinger, Joe Burkhart, Joe Murdock, Leo Davis, Ed Wasmuth, Tye Robinson, and Gibson Gardner.

Student Managers: Norman Spotts and Max Herzog.

First Row: Vernon Pinkerton, Jim Hildebrand, Jim Delvin, Art Warner, Mick Hammel, Virgil Thorn, Dick Weinman, Bob Hummer, Rodger Turner.

Second Row: Jack Biehl, John Michael, Clete Olinger, Tye Robinson, Calvin Piepenbrink, Leo Davis, Bob Hoover, Jim Votaw.

Third Row: Bill Ehinger, Rin Grossman, Kenny Rinz, Ed Gordon, Gerald Heindselman, Horace Richardson, Bill Biehl, Jim Hull.

Coach Williams, Jim Delvin, Mark Hammel, Jim Hildebrand.

Cleated Shoes and a Pig Skin

SENIORS

Jim Delvin, Guard. His position on the all-conference team this season climaxed two years of play on the varsity. "Monk" was consistent and cool-headed and could be counted on to give all he had for H. H. S. He started every game during the season of '42 and proved to be very capable, especially on defense. His graduation will leave a gap in the front line which will be hard to fill.

Mark Hammel, End. The fact that "Mick" was selected as a member of the 3rd team of the all-state squads, as well as garnering a first string birth on the all-conference team speaks for itself. Shifted from right half to end in an effort to strengthen our wing positions, he coupled his fighting spirit with natural ability and became an outstanding all around performer, during his second and last year as a member of the varsity.

Jim Hildebrand, Guard. Fans won't soon forget this scrappy Viking's aggresive play at the guard spot. Using submarining as his speciality, "Shorty" was able to gum the works for the opposition on a lot of would-be-gains through the lines. Among the more notable Viking assets was Shorty's winning spirit which was a big factor in the morale of the squad.

Rodger Turner, Virgil Thorn, Vernon Pinkerton, Art Warner, Ass't Coach Oscar Naab, Ass't Coach Don Butt.

Rodger Turner, Quarterback. Hard working Viking specialized in solid blocks which paved the way for the other fast stepping Norse backs. In the latter part of the season "Herky" became a member on the receiving end of the Hummer-Turner pass combination, which was a big factor in the Red and Black's upheaval in the last several games.

Art Warner, Tackle. Art was one of the biggest men on the squad, and one of the best. He used his ruggedness to the best advantage and added more laurels to his previous exhibitions during his junior year as a regular member of the Viking charges. Opponents learned to respect his aggresive but clean play which he used while on the gridiron.

Vern Pinkerton, Tackle, held down left tackle position for three years. "Pink's" ability and experience enabled him to be a strong pillar on the Viking line. A wrist injury, incurred in the Marion game, handicapped him during early season play; but he gained ground as the season progressed and returned to his old form which had made him a mainstay the two previous seasons.

Virg Thorn, Center. "Dutch" really deserves a lot of credit for his performance at the pivot spot his junior and senior years. Combining his ability with a lot of hard work, the Norse center mastered his offensive duties and also turned in praise-worthy defensive exhibitions.

FOOTBALL

Marion 19 Huntington 0

The Norse eleven was humbled 19-0 in their initial game of the season by the Marion Giants, one of the stronger squads in the state. The Vikes fought hard but were unable to stop the victors fast moving offense.

Injuries to Hammel and Hummer, backs, and Pinkerton, left tackle, dampened our chances for a successful counter-offensive in the latter stages of the battle.

Central Catholic, Fort Wayne 18 Huntington 0

An underated Central Catholic eleven from Fort Wayne played havoc with the Viking's hopes to get in the win column by drubbing them 18-0, scoring once in each of the first three cantos.

The Red and Black showed signs of a budding offensive threat but were unable to cross the Irish goal. The Vikings fourth quarter spurge was stopped short of a score on the two yard line when two line plunges failed to get the tally. On the third attempt the Vikes fumbled, with the visitors recovering.

Wabash 46 Vikings 6

The powerful Wabash Apaches drubbed our Vikings 46-6 in a steady downpour in the third game of the slate at the opponents gridiron. The Norse proved no match for the Highlanders but the score underrates our gridders in comparison with the Apaches.

Warsaw 34 Huntington 6

A last quarter scoring spree by the Tigers from Warsaw put the Norsemen out of the running in their second game with a conference foe. At the start of the fourth period the Vikes trailed 14-6, but the Norse defense fell apart in the ensuing minutes of play as Warsaw counted 20 points via three touchdowns and two points-after-touchdown.

Lima, Ohio 28 Huntington 0

Our Vikes suffered a decisive defeat at the hands of the Lima Tigers at the Ohio gridiron. The fast stepping backs from Lima counted three tallies and made good three attempts to convert to pile up a 21-0 lead at the end of th ehalf.

The final two periods saw the Norse machine take on new life, sparked by End Mick Hammel and Guard Jim Delvin. Clet Olinger fleet Norse substitute back, tossed three passes in the final minutes of play to bring the Norse within a few yards of Lima's goal, only to thve the scoring attempt stopped by the final gun.

Elwood 13 Huntington 12

Failure to convert after both touchdowns cheated the Norse out of a tie or a victory as they lost to Elwood 12 to 13.

The Panthers netted both their touchdowns in the second period and the Vikes retaliated in the third canto, scoring two six pointers.

Jack Biehl and Rin Grossman scored Huntington's touchdowns.

Bluffton 0 Huntington 12

The red and black finally got into the win column after six unsuccessful attempts, blanking the Bluffton Tigers 12-0. This win stopped the visitor's three winning streak.

Bob Hummer sparked the offensive of the victorious Vikes, tallying both Norse touchdowns which came in the first and second periods. The second half saw the two teams battling evenly.

A hard charging line stopped the Tiger's scoring threats cold.

Peru 21 Huntington 25

The Vikings edged the Tigers from Peru 25-21 at the local turf in the most thrilling contest of the year.

Mick Hammel, hard fighting end, scored two of the six pointers on passes from Hummer. Another Norse score was achieved via a brilliant 65 yard sprint to the goal line by diminitive halfback, Clet Olinger. Roge Tuner plunged through center for the other Viking score.

The Red and Black entered the game underdogs but really turned in a sparling exhibition of the old winning spirit and ability to play "heads-up" ball.

On The Ball

Playing the toughest schedule in the history of basketball in H.H.S. the hard fighting Vikings won 8 and lost 14 games.

Coach Bill Williams started his first season at the helm of the Viking ship, coming from Celina, Ohio, where he turned out some top net teams. Williams hit some rough sailing in the playing of our "suicide" schedule which brought the Norse together with some of the stronger teams in the state, including State Champion Central of Fort Wayne Tigers, Warsaw, Marion, Rochester, and Muncie of Burris. All were rated in the top 10 teams of the state at least part of the season.

Huntington's lack of height was the chief reason why the Red and Black came out on the short end of the win-loss column. Fans who followed the Vikings will testify that the squad of 42-43 was one of the "fightingist" ever.

Jim Delvin and Mick Hammel, seniors, and Bill Bostel, sophomore, paced the Vikings in the offensive with Bill Parks, Art Warner, and Roge Turner holding up the defensive side ably.

Delvin and Bostel were named on the all sectional team. Parks and Hammel received honorable mention.

The J. E. Michael free throw trophy which is given at the close of each season to the Viking making the highest percentage of free throws was won by Turner, who hit 625%.

The graduating Seniors received jackets, a custom which was inaugurated at the close of the 41-42 season.

The following were awarded jackets and major letters: Jim Delvin, Bill Parks, Art Warner, Rodger Turner, and Mick Hammel. Major letters: Jack Biehl, Bob Mitchell, Schuyler Haines, Bill Bostel and Bob Hendricks.

SECTIONAL

It was the Vikings against the fifteen other teams in the sectional as the usual spirit was displayed by our 'guests'.

Union gave our Norse a run for their money, tailing them until a few minutes before the final gun, when H.H.S. iced the game with two rapid fire field goals to win 30-25.

Our intra-city rivals, Huntington Catholic, proved no match for the smooth working Sea Rovers as our boys more than doubled the score, winning 45-19.

In the third game of the Vike's attempt to conquer the Sectional was a stubborn Clear Creek quintet who almost slipped a win over the Norse. Senior Jim Delvin came through in the last minutes of play with three successive two pointers as we won 31-23.

Huntington's championship hopes were blasted in the final game by the Andrews squad, who took advantage of the Norse failure to hit from the free throw line and won 29-23. The Vikes were able to score but 7 of 16 free throw attempts.

Under the tutelage of Oscar Naab the Scyldings won nine and lost six games and gave Coach Bill Williams reason to smile when future Viking hardwood teams are discussed. The reserves were well balanced and several combinations were used effectively during the season. It was fortunate that there were more than five "good boys" on the team because several of the boys were graduated to the Varsity during the season.

Scoring was well divided, with Bostel, Hendricks, and Haines leading. Minor awards were won by: Ed Wasmuth, Cliff Schacht, Dick Stephan, Joe Burkhart, Calvin Peipenbrink, Dick Diffenbaugh, Bob Hummer, Tye Robinson, Gene Musselman, Clete Olinger, Dick Weinman, and Jim Bowers.

FROSH

The Frosh, under the direction of Don Butt, turned in an impressive season winning twelve and losing two. Don Dimond, Dean Stephan, and Marvin Priddy sparked the "greenies" during their successful season.

The following were awarded frosh four inch letters: Dean Stephan, Tom Rohm, Don Dimond, Gene Hart, Marvin Priddy, Dean Kreig, Bill Tester, Bob Morris, Dick Christ, Rex Yoder, Bob Luce, and Gene Wogan.

Back row: Coach Butt, Dick Christ, Bob Luce, Dick Tester, Rex Yoder, Gene Wogan, Gene Hart, Norman Spotts (manager).

First row: Keith Stout, Dick Huffer, Harold Oden, Harold Sutter, Jack Biehl, Kenny Renz, Kenneth Crago, Russell Buzzard (Manager), Roy Emery, Phil Monsey, Stanley Pontious, Jim Bowers, Bob Hummer, Coach Butt.

Trail Dust

The year 1943 marked an upheaval of track in Huntington High School with more enthusiasm being shown this year than in the past five or more seasons. Coach Don Butt assumed the coaching duties and when a call was issued a few weeks before the inauguration of the '43 season for candidates, only two boys who had won major letters in track answered the call, but a number of inexperienced boys with a lot of talent were present for the initial workout.

Mark Hammel, Clete Olinger, and Bill Freed formed the nucleus of the squad; Hammel running the mile, Olinger the dashes, and Freed the 440 yard sprint. Senior Ed Hochstettler turned in some good performances in the hurdles and George Pontious and Bob Hummer were consistent point-getters.

In the first meet of the year with Chester the Vikings came out on the short end of a 92-38 decision. However, the Norse drubbed South Whitley 60-21 in their second encounter. Huntington placed second in a three way meet with Wabash and Fairmount, the Apaches winning the affair.

The following boys were eligible for awards: George Pontious and Ed Hochstettler major letter and jacket.

Major letter: Mark Hammel, Bob Hummer, Clete Olinger, John Michael, Bill Freed.

Minor: Jim Martin, Lyle Ahner, Max Herzog, Bob Luce, Bill Passwater, Bill Bostel, Kenny Renz, Jim Bowers, Jack Biehl, Harold Oden, Roy Emery, Kieth Stout, Phil Monsey, Bill Biehl, Glen Harsh, Kenney Crago and Stanley Pontious.

Schedule:

April 6 Chester
April 15 South Whitley
April 22 Wabash; Fairmount
April 28 Peru and Columbia City
May 4 Central, Fort Wayne
May 7 Conference track meet
May 15 Sectional at North Side, Ft. Wayne

In Sportive Play

The Girls' Athletic Association is a peculiar organization in that you not only have to work after joining, but you must work in order to join; meaning you must earn 100 points to become a member. These points are earned by participating in different sports inside and outside school. An additional 25 points must be earned each semester in order to remain a G.A.A. member. These girls have earned 250 points which means they'll receive an "H" this year: Alice Marie Plasterer, Mary Jane Alexander, Janice Rose Brown, Clara Jane Kennedy, Mary Triggs, Betty Kriegbaum, Joan Hueber and Doris Summers. Girls earning 350 points in order to receive a plaque are: Louanna Gardner, Marguerite Lamb, Jean Powell, and Delores Hubley.

The Girls' Athletic Association has really come into its own this year. The "cave-women" have been called upon to prove their super-strength and ability by leading the classes and groups participating in the physical fitness program.

The organization's sponser, Miss Ruth Luther, is the county chairman of the Physical Fitness Program so naturally the girls are really "in there".

They not only have been leading the high school Physical Fitness groups but have been teaching Pee Wee and Junior groups in tumbling, basketball, anl swimming at the Y.M.C.A.

ARCHERY

Huntington High's Robinhoodesses have not had to "noch," but they had us "quivering" with excitement when they gave a demonstration in the auditorium November 13.

Archery is one of the best types of sports to develop posture, which means much to the present physical fitness in the way of national morale.

BOWLING

Slender, tender tires and only "A" cards meant no out-of-town meets for the bowling team this year; but their motto "keep 'em rolling" won them their only contest, with Huntington Township. Our pin girls weren't in the gutter, but were strictly on the alley. The team consisted of: Sarah Lee Winter, Jean Powell, Jean Poorman, Doris Summers and Barbara Bonebrake.

High scorers were Doris Summers, 109 average; Barbara Bonebrake, 108; Patricia Ramsey, 107.

A bowling party was held at the hotel with a lot of "stricking" girls attending. Strength was renewed afterwards by food at the Globe.

TENNIS

The sixty girls that entered the tennis tournament last fall made quite a "racket" on the high school set. Joan Heuber and Joan Clark took the doubles from Billie Ann Marquart and Hurleen Feltman 6-3; 6-3. Josephine Funk won over Mary Roselyn Triggs in the singles 6-2; 3-6; 6-4. The winners received medals from the Scholastic Coach magazine.

VOLLEYBALL

Volleyball, per usual, rescued a lot of sports-minded girls from their ever-so-dull books. Rotating six different and confusing ways, the team went half and half, losing one game ("serves" them right) and winning the other from Huntington Township. The team consisted of: Phyllis Knight, Josephine Funk, Jean Powell, Doris Summers, Susan Hemphill, Beulah Hemphill, Margretha Ervin, Marthetta Ervin, Mary Lou Bowers and Marilyn Zeigler.

"We don't want to set the world on fire—we just want to get this book out on time," shouted members of the Modulus Staff as they dashed in and out of room 310 the last three weeks of publication. As the year's work on the Modulus is finished, the staff members experience a feeling of regret mingled with relief.

The sponsor, editor, and photographer can generally be identified by their harassed expressions and the line of worry in their faces caused by the state of the book—the deadline of the printers, the freezing of flash bulbs, or the possibility of the book coming out on time. Not only has the Modulus undergone endless change from its first dummy form in the fall, but copies have had to be done over and pictures have been taken over and over again. It is difficult to imagine any yearbook staff working together in more perfect harmony than this year's staff has done. The business staff handled the financial end of the book, selling subscriptions and advertising.

For your approval—student, faculty, and patrons we present—the 1943 Modulus.

Under the supervision of Mr. Bruce Gerdes, the Senior Hi-Y closed its twenty-first year as one of our leading high school organizations. The other guiding lights were James Carr, President; James Delvin, Vice-President; George Pontious, Secretary-Treasurer, and Carl Seely, Sergeant-at-Arms. James Delvin was acting President the last term of the year in the absence of James Carr, who was attending a meteorology school.

Many interesting talks and discussions were enjoyed at the regular meetings, the topics of which varied from sportsmanship in war to etiquette on dates. One popular type of meeting was that which consisted of each Hi-Y member taking his turn in the center of the room and being subjected to constructive criticism from his fellow members. The boys learnd a lot doing this, especially the art of being able to "take it."

Besides the regular weekly meetings, the annual social functions were an important part of seeking to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community higher standards of Christian character. A banquet was held during the Christmas season to which a younger underprivileged boy was invited for each Hi-Y member. This annual affair was begun two years ago.

The Father-and-Son and the Mother-and-Son banquets were held early in the spring at the Y. M. C. A.

The second annual Blind Date Night was also held in the spring at the Y. M. C. A. The boys and girls were given numbers and the corresponding numbers resulted in the dates for the evening. More fun!

Through the combined efforts of the Hi-Y, the Sunshine Society, and the Huntington Ministerial Association, the annual Easter Sunrise Service was held Easter morning at the Central Christian Church. This is one of the most important of the Hi-Y functions.

The Junior Hi-Y, or perhaps you know it as the "Sponsor of the Month Club," had its first meeting in September with an informal initiation. The sponsor then was Mr. Ed Burke; everything went fine until Mr. Burke accepted a job in a defense factory and resigned all of his extra curricular activities including Junior Hi-Y. Mr. Buzzard took the job, but left when he was called to the navy, and now Mr. Ed Sunley is finishing out the year. Activities for the year were: Hayride; Miss Hazel Cage-Etiquette; Mr. Clark Michael-Hobbies; Mrs. Bea Patterson-Parlimentary Proceedure; Ensign Harry Fullerton, Jr.-Navy Air Corps.; Mr. Merriweather-Race Prejudice. Mr. Buzzard showed home movies. Also there was a Mother-and-Son and Father-and-Son banquet.

The officers were, Mark Weber, president; Bob Hendricks, vice-president; Gibson Gardner, secretary-treasurer; James Cozad, sergeant-at-arms.

Lois McKain, president; Ann Bash, vice-president; Dorothy Griffith, treasurer; Carolyn Repp, corresponding secretary; Jean Burris, recording secretary.

Sunshine Society

The Sunshine Society has indeed been "on its toes" this school year. Not only the society itself has done a lot, but the committees too have been quite active. This great organization was started in the year 1915 as a secret organization, and, as the years progressed, it was made a school organization for all girls. Its motto is "Others".

The officers for the year 1942-43 have been under the leadership of that very small but influential individual Lois ("Sugar") McKain. Her assistants were: Ann Bash, Vice President; Dot Griffith, Treasurer; Jean Burris, Recording Secretary, and Carolyn Repp, Corresponding Secretary. The hard-working teacher who gave every moment of her spare time to sponsor this worthy organization was Miss Alice Kline.

The first committee to begin its activities was the Sunshine Gales. This small (at first) group of girls began "buzzing" last July by having meetings all through the summer at the homes of the different members. The leaders are Patricia Burke-Chm and Betty Day and Joan Gilkison-Co-Chm. Its sponsor is Miss Hazel Cage, who I believe deserves a lot of complimenting and patting on the back. "Birdie" has plenty of other things to do besides taking on this group of girls; however, she did not hesitate to do so when she learned how eager they were to start the organization and to have her especially as their leader. The organization has done far too many things for me to try and list them, but I shall mention a few of the most important ones. These are: first of all, to buy a twenty-five dollar war bond and generously give it to the Huntington County Hospital. They have knitted the blocks for 13 afghans and sent them to the Riley Hospital in Indianapolis. They started a fad by doing this, for even the boys of H. H. S. were seen in classes knitting and, if I might say so, doing a wee bit of struggling with their knitting needles.

The Riley fund this year has been more successful than in any previous year. The plea for donations for this very worthy cause was so great that the Hi-Y club even gave a donation of ten dollars. At this time I think it quite appropriate to say to

Voice of the People

Speaking of speaking, the Sr. Masque and Gavel really had a busy year. The club met regularly last summer in preparation for the school year; so the officers were elected last spring, and things started buzzing the first week of school. Officiating were: Nonnie Ross, president; Norma Marchand, vice-president; Mark Kilty, secretary, and Sam Fogel, sergeant-at-arms.

Betty Pressel was typist, and was really kept busy peckin' it out. She kept a record of Newscast skits, made copies of plays and skits, etc.; and, believe me, it's a job.

Sam Fogel, Newscast chairman, was responsible for some of the corny puns you listened to sooooo early each morning. Rex Micheal was the control-man, though we doubt if you realized Sam needed help to make himself heard.

One of the most outstanding issues of the year was the two-day conference at Purdue. This was the annual Indiana High School Speech Conference, and the group received many helpful suggestions and much experience in the varied fields of speech. Several members attended this conference, and Betty Pressel, Sam Fogel, and Norma Marchand represented the club in the Student Congress and fourteen new members were initiated this year; so the club had a total of twenty-one active members. All were kept busy with speech activities, under the direction of Mrs. Patterson, their sponsor; and the students really utilized our American privilege—freedom of speech.

Smaller Voices

Forty enthusiastic freshmen and sophomores organized in the fall to follow in the footsteps of the Senior Masque and Gavel. The purpose of this club is to prepare them for membership in the Senior club. In addition to speech programs at regular meeting they have given announcements each Thursday and presented several newscasts. Several of the group have participated in discussions, plays and newscasts of the Senior club. The officers were Catherine Morris, president; Mark Weber, vice-president; Jane Brown, secretary; Mrs. Patterson was the sponsor, and Norma Marchand was junior sponsor.

Boosting Their Champs

Pep Squad

The pep squad used a new system this year by taking in one senior and five juniors instead of all juniors as they have always done. At one of the pep sessions the new members were announced and introduced before the auditorium.

Before the sectionals a skit was given by all members. Each came out on the stage dressed very farmerish and gave a comical demonstration or talk concerning the school they represented. Each one represented a school in the county.

The two snake-dances this year were put on and arranged by the pep squad also. The members of this boosters organization are as follows: Jane Bash, Ann Bash, Gloria Wasmuth, Phyllis Carl, Beverly Stephan, Murnie Ziegler, Marthene Rudicel, Queenie Hubley, Margie Schenkel, Ruby Grossman, Doris Dick and Marianna Grayston.

Cheer Leaders

Since we lost all of the yell leaders of last year, we got a new lot this year, two of whom are girls. They have done remarkably well since they first started and have sparked our boys on many occassions. They really gave us a lot of pep, these four cheerers: Glenn Harsh, Phyllis Carl, Nan Clark and Harry Clark.

Daubers

The Art Club made a very "colorful" showing this year. First they made their annual trip, this year to Indianapolis, and visited Block's Galleries, where the National Scholastic High School Art Contest was being held. Mrs. Robinson lectured to them, after which round table discussions were held. Later they visited the John Herron Art School, classrooms, and Museum. Thirty-two art students made the trip.

We had quite a western atmosphere this year when "them thar artists had themselves a Rodeo." They even had a Dude Ranch with lots of dudes and chaps. They had to leave "thar hosses" outside, and hot-dogs were brought in on chow-wagons. "Spurred" on by everybody's hilarity, the rodeo was realy a success.

The Art Club's officers were: President, Elizabeth Rowe; vice-president, Dorothy Griffith; secretary, Henry Kindler, and treasurer, Gibson Gardner.

Music Hath Charms

About six years ago our masters of the crescendos and diminuendos first began warbling. Someone was really on pitch when this was thought of. Mrs. Branyan is the chief organizer and worrier.

Enjoying their high C's, nine girls banded together into the T. T. S. C. Since then, they have been chirping everywhere—from teachers' meetings to a double concert with the band.

As you pass the auditorium third period you ask, "What are those heavenly voices?" It's the H. H. S. Choir, and they certainly have been busy this year. Singing for the Thanksgiving, Christmas, Armistice Day, U. S. O., and Easter programs was a big job for anybody but a pleasant occasion for everybody.

This musical aggregation also graced the baccalaureate services. With all this boogie-woogie fever going around let's all be thankful at least this group has kept its head.

Mozart or

Although there was no band contest this year to prove it, the studen of H. H. S. are none the less certain that their band is one of finest. Under the very able directorship of Delmar Weesner the ba reached a peak of perfection regardless of the program conflicts so of the members were contending with due to wartime requirements.

The band, of course, was active in co-operating with other organizatio These activities varied from playing at a defense factory to supporting own football and basketball teams.

The types of music played by the band are as varied as the public's ability enjoy all types. Among the classics were "The Old Mill," "The Land of the M

The Garden Clinic

The home with a garden is a better home, and now with our nation putting so much of its energies into building a strong America the family garden becomes urgent. (People of all climes and circumstances always have had gardens.) Gardening offers wholesome exercise in the fresh air, fresh vegetables full of natural vitamins for healthy bodies and flowers to create beauty and morale.

January—Mr. Brenn talked on gardening as a phase of civilian defense.

February—Reorganization of the high school club. President—Bob McCoy, Vice-President—Mary J. Chenoweth, Secretary—Margaret Clark, Membership Chairman—Steve Carlson. Two teams were chosen and given names—Tomato Worms and Corn Borers. The captains were Joline Shoemaker and Jack Young. The membership was increased from about 20 to 45.

The High School Victory Garden Club has affiliated itself with the 4-H Clubs and junior leaders have been chosen for each grade school in the city. These leaders and their groups will be eligible for entry in the 4-H Fair.

March—Meeting of all City Garden Clubs in the high school auditorium with Prof. Hall, a speaker from Purdue University.

April—Mr. Mickley distributed plants and trees to high school members. Professor Lowe. of Huntington College, spoke about practical helps.

May—Hike and sack lunch with the Tomato Worms as hosts. Mr. Mickley demonstrated budding and grafting. Guests of Prof. Lowe on Garden Day, May 1.

June, July and August—Junior Leaders visit respective buildings and their gardens to work with Mr. Rusk, the County Agent, for the 4-H Fair.

September—Certificates are given by Kiwanis. Victory Garden Harvest Show at the Community Gym. All exhibits and contributions will be shown.

The Art Department made Garden posters and prizes were awarded to Elizabeth Rowe, Henry Kindler and Glen Harsh. The judges were Miss Cage and Mr. Brown.

Microbe Hunters

Members of the Biology Research Club really drove their co-sponsors, Mr. Butt and Mr. Naab, almost "bugs" this year, but it was fun. The old members had a ducky time initiating the Neophytes at Lagro State Park, amidst a downpour of rain. The old members found that no spirits were dampened by the rain; so they did something about it. We are told by the survivors that there was something besides rain in the air that night, and we can scarcely forget the perfect animal imitations we saw at school the next day.

The parties were held each month at the homes of the various members. At each meeting those present "wormed" their way through a general biology exam, compiled by the sponsors.

Due to transportation difficulties the club was unable to take its annual research trip to some place of scientific interest so the spring hikes and meals in The Great Out-of-Doors served as a pleasant substitute, the last of these excursions being a farewell party given by the members in honor of their departing fellow bug-lovers—the seniors.

The officers for the year were: Evelyn Mickley, president; Nonnie Ross, vice-president, and Don Smiley, secretary-treasurer.

Book Lenders

Actuariae is made up of students who have worked in the library for one or more semesters. The object of the club is to organize the student library assistants into a better body in order to suggest exhibits and assist in carrying out plans for grooming and beautifying the library, as well as to render service to all students and teachers of H. H. S.

The officers are elected at the last meeting of each year. Those serving during the past year are as follows:

President, Lois Ann Martin.

Vice President, Beneta Meese.

Secretary-Treasurer, Marilyn Richards.

Actuariae meets twice a month—one-half hour meeting during school and a night meeting falling on the third Thursday of each month.

The September initiation for new members was formal and was held at the N. I. P Auditorium, after which a theater party was enjoyed. The January initiation was in the form of a potluck and was held at the home of Naomi Wacknitz.

National Book Week was sponsored by the Actuariae during the week of November 16-20. Each day consisted of a new event. A book week paper was edited and presented to all students and the faculty. Book jackets were placed in every room, displaying the different types and varieties of books in our school library. Hand-painted book markers were also distributed. Two contests were given during the week—one in vhich each student woted for his favorite book and magazine, and another on authors and books. The winner of the "Author and Title" contest was presented with a five dollar prize. The high-light of the week was Mrs. Everett D. Hood, who reviewed "Return to the Future" for the student body. This was paid for by Actuariae. She also reviewed "Two Ends to Our Shoestring" for a night performance for the public. This was the second year Actuariae brought her to H. H. S. The week was brought to a close with a tea for all members of the faculty.

The annual field trip was taken to Chicago to visit the libraries there.

The Literary Minded

"Books Build Character." The members of the Actuariae Club decided to capitalize on this slogan as their part in the all-out-for-defense effort.

The purpose of the Book-of-the-Month Club is to encourage students to build their own libraries and in that way to develop a regular reading habit.

Each month a list of titles is presented, from which a student selects one or more books. These books are all cloth bound library size editions which are taken from the list of the National Council of Teachers of English and other approved lists.

Each member subscribes for one book each month for four consecutive months. The fifth month a dividend book is given; however, if one month is missed, the right to a dividend book is lost.

The Book-of-the-Month Club was started about three years ago, but was open only to Actuariae members. After awhile, it was decided to open the club to the entire student body, and in no time at all ninety-six members were enrolled.

The three girls of Actuariae who have charge of ordering and distributing the books each month are: Rosemary Denton, Doris Summers and Lilah Cook.

Meetings of the Book-of-the-Month Club are held once a month during activity period to receive, select, and pay for the books.

Third Row: Nancy Hughes, Marveline Hite, Joyce Garber, Vivian Brubaker, Marie Frewer, Billie Ann Marquart.

Fourth Row: Mark Hammel, Thomas Flaugher, Ed Wasmuth, Eugene Schenkel, Fred Howell, Gene Musselman, Harold Johnson.

Reign of Law

The Student Council is made up of representatives elected by each home room to serve for both semesters. This body meets frequently to discuss and find solutions for problems which come up in the student body.

The first meeting for the 1941-1942 school year was held October 20, and the following officers were elected: President, James Carr; vice-president, Bob Cox; and secretary, Betty Rudig. After Jim and Bob left us, Hugh Marshall was elected to fill the vacancy.

One of the main purposes of the Student Council was to conduct the War Stamp Drive. That the students purchased stamps not just because they felt it was their patriotic duty but because they wanted to be of service was shown when they also contributed generously to Red Cross work, also sponsored by the Council.

A committee composed of Don Smiley, Arden Peting and Nancy Hughes planned the religious programs held every Tuesday through the year.

Hall orderliness and conduct in and around the school was discussed in home rooms, and to impress their earnestness, the members of the Council took over the duties of the standing monitors.

Future 1-A's

To be a member of the H Club one must be a major H winner in football, basketball, or track. We like to think of that Big H standing for Health, Happiness, Humbleness, Hardness, and Honor. Then will it always mean much to the Vike wearing it!

Officers for the organization this year were: President, Jim Delvin; Vice-President, Carl Seely; Secretary-Treasurer, George Pontius.

First Row: Nonnie Ross, Ann Bash, Dotty Day, Lois McKain, Betty Rudig, Phyllis Roudebush.
Third Row: Barabara LaMont, Juneellen Barnes, Mary Esther Dunkin, Betty Pressel, Betty Endsley, Twila Glock.
Fourth Row: Rex Michael, Randall Mattern, Glenn Smith, Bob Mitchell, Lowell Ellabarger.
Fifth Row: Don Smiley, Rex Steffy, Mr. Johnson, Paul Oxley, Bill Zeigler.

On the Beam

The Honor Society, as in previous years, is made up of those seniors who are in the upper 25 per cent of the Senior Class and the juniors who are in the upper 5 per cent of their class. Members of both societies must be qualified throughout their three and four years in high school in the four standards of the society. These are: leadership, scholarship, character and service. The society itself is a national one and has been an organization in Huntington High School for the past seventeen consecutive years.

It is the ambition of almost every high school student to become a member of this organization. It symbolizes years of hard work and study and those who do make this society well deserve it.

Destined to Succeed

K. B. F. is a scholastic award given to the highest 5 per cent of the Senior Class. The initials stand for the motto of the Kiwanis Club, which is "Kiwanis Builds Forever." This award is given by the Kiwanis Club of Huntington and includes a student's grades for his entire four years of high school.

At the same time the K. B. F. awards are announced, the valedictorian and salutatorian are selected. These two individuals represent the two highest averages in grades for their whole high school course. For the class of 1943, the valedictorian was Lowell Ellabarger, and the salutatorian was Randall Mattern.

Randall Mattern, Dotty Day, Betty Pressel, Lowell Ellabarger, Beverly Stephan, Sam Fogel, Lois McKain.

Ere We All Went Mad

Yes, June Mad that's exactly what the city of Huntington went, but, of course, a bit prematurely on the evenings of March 25 and 26. If the above statement leaves a furrow in your brow then you'll have a slight idea of how confusing the fast and hilarious action of the senior dramatists was. The story written by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clements pictures the antics and troubles of Penny Wood and Chuck Harris, two real teen-aged kids as played by Gene Anne Stonebraker and Bill Cathers (also meriting the same adjective in real life.) Meanwhile our teenagers are being annoyed or advised by their parents Mrs. Wood, Dr. Wood, and Mr. Harris, who reading from write to telegraph leads us to Norma Marchand, Randall Mattern, and (note: if you turn this page upside down it still George Pontious. As if this isn't complicated enough won't make sense) G. Mervyn Roberts (Bill Zeigler) has to come home from college and bring his friend Roger Van Vleck (pronounced like the flek in corn flecks) 2nd parenthesis (as if we needed more corn in this resume) played by Paul Oxley. These two are pursued by Milly Lou (Dorothy Day) and they both also pursue glamor girl Julie Harris (Margaret Clark). Adding to the life of the play we find Ralph and Shirley Wentworth coming to the party and going home as Ned Roush and Helen Briggs. While Elmer Tuttle and Effie keep everybody in stitches as they are continually cutting up. Beneath this bit of gaiety we find Kenneth Whitted and Twila Glock.

In between the second and third acts the senior queen nominees were introduced and the queen was finally coronated after Sam Fogel held the audience in suspense and his life in jeopardy. In order to save the war on your dictionary, I will state right here that the word coronated has no relationship to coronation but refers to Fogel's corn which was manifested in injurious abundance until finally Phyllis Carl was named queen.

Well, getting back to the play, after going through a hectic period of glider building and novel writing everything finally ends up O. K. Don't ask me how it came around to this, I am not a quiz kid. I'm just a guy that really appreciated the evening of enjoyment and so I appreciate the work of the directors, Bruce E. Gerdes and Beatrice Patterson and their fine understudy, student director, Barbara LaMont; the prompter, Beverly Stephan; the art work done by Jean Powell, Thais Coble, Eloise Parker, Madge Pleanitz, Lois Farley; the carpentry carpentered by Glen Nowells and Mark Hammel; the lighting and sound effects made by Rex Michael; the care of the properties by Tom Kelley; the ushering directed by Mary Jane Chenoweth, and the publicity furnished by Bill Herzog, Glenn Smith, Rex Steffy, Arnet Wells, Beatrice Disler.

Well, having voiced my appreciation, this is Sam Fogel, your dramatic critic, saying that the class of '43 has raised a new high standard of acting that will be hard to equal. To the class of '44 I say good luck, good fortune, and good night.

Curtain

Pan American

This year, because of the present situation, more emphasis was placed on Pan Americanism than ever before.

Through the courtesy of the Audio Visual Department, films were shown to the high school and junior high school students. These films were entitled "Orchids," "Brazil," and "Americans All."

On Pan American Day, April 14, a pageant was presented entitled "A Tribute to Latin America." This was in the form of a travel talk by Ruth Stamper which was alternated with numbers representing Latin American history, music and customs.

The program opened with the Band playing "Pan Americana."

Spanish music was played by Jack Sorenson, James Carroll, George Saunders, Jack O'Malley, and James Martin.

Phyllis Goodmiller from Horace Mann School told of the importance of Mexico.

The Sunshine Sextette sang South American melodies. These girls were Alice Meyers, Jane Brown, Marveline Hite, Ethel Smith, Catherine Morris, and Patricia Orr. They were accompanied by Nancy Herbst.

Students from Lincoln school traced transportation in Latin America from the pack mule to the modern airliner. Those participating were Melba Bailey, Germaine Barnes, Martha Richardson, Gloria Krieg, Marjorie Weinley, Ben Rader, Phillip Jackson, Harry Smith, Don Woods, Fred Stricker, Paul Kahlenbeack, Gene Swain, Jerry Vollmar, Jerry Waikel, Jack Elston, Rex Bowers, Howard Smith, and Kenneth Cross.

Pupils from Central School, Patricia Brown, Carolyn Petrucelle, Paul Sheppard,

Programs

Norma Bowman, and Kieth Kalb, reviewed the Liberators of South America.

A Latin American dance was presented by Helen Sheppard, Doris Summers, Iris Summers, Louanna Gardner, Betty Day, Marjorie Marx, Gloria Wasmuth, Juanita Wilson, Charlotte Rahn, Lois McKain, Marilyn Richards, Dorothy Griffith, Dorothy Day, and Beverly Stephan.

The band played "La Poloma" and "Escapada."

Rosa Lou Paul, from Riley School, gave a reading "Christ of the Andes."

Mr. Merriweather from the college sang several numbers.

The last number on the program was a Tableaux with Flags presented by students from Central School. Those taking part were Dorla Brown, Emilie Burke, Jane Barnhart, Philip Gardner, Delores Feltman, Rex Shindle, Richard Collins, Patsy McConkle, Gene Vardaman, Janet Bailey, Marilyn Fosselman, Barbara Rohm, John Wyler, Ann Bippus, Reinald Carter, Morris Brown, Patsy Rusk, Dick Hendricks, Barbara Tower, William Lauterbach and Donna Mae Roberts.

Also in connection with Pan Americanism some art classes made invitations to their mothers and others made recipe books. The Pan American work came to a climax May 6 when the Masque and Gavel presented a radio play, "Good Neighbors." Also on May 6, through the courtesy of the Women's Departmental Club, Wayne Hanson, of Oak Park, Illinois, spoke to the high school students on "Latin America Today and Tomorrow." A banquet was held in the evening for the teachers with Wayne Hanson giving an informal talk.

Class Prophecy

PROLOGUE: (That which we shall not have, as we do not wish to prologue your anxiety to discover what the future holds in store for you.)

By way of explanation, and in case you do not recognize us by our signatures, we are the gremlins you hear so much about. Now that the war has ended and we have ceased having palpitations over uniforms, we have settled down (imagine that!) to a more worthwhile past-time—that of looking up members of the class of '43. We never thought anything extraordinary could come out of that class, but I guess they must have read the Listerine and Lifebuoy ads, for they seem to be fairly successful. Because Mr. McClurg believes there can be too much of a good (?) thing, we are forced to confine our account to only a small portion of our discoveries; therefore, some of you seniors will have to figure out your future for yourselves. One of the advantages of gremlinship is that we can see our subjects although they are totally unaware of our presence. (These seniors are soooooo dignified!)

The voice on the loud speaker here at the airport has just called "All aboard." We know you probably are "all bored," and he needn't rub it in!

The Stewardess of our plane, none other than Janet Vickery, tells us that our pilot, Bob Young, has been awarded the title of "The Safest Driver in Air." Well, he always did fly low, even in the days of automobiles.

Our first stop is in New York, where Jeanette Adams (Jones to you), Evalois Overholt (Burkhart to you), and Betty Wood (Truitt to you) have just published their manual (advice to you) entitled "How to Win Men and Who Cares About Other People?" They have just been interviewed by Ned Roush, who has turned from the sports page to the society column. Frankly, we think it is because there are fewer women in sports. He made the change before he saw Louanna Gardner, the new tennis champion. Louie divides her time between tennis and her dogs. (No, we don't mean the terminations of those shapely legs.)

"Chewey" has invited us to accompany him on his next assignment, so we have consented and are trailing along in our "characteristic gremlinistic way."

Imagine our surprise when we arrive on the scene to find Bill "Always-on-the-spot" Zeigler taking several shots of that luscious strawberry blonde, known to you as "Shorty" Carl. No, Milly Lou, she hasn't resorted to henna rinse; but she raised the most strawberries per square inch that have been raised since the Victory Gardens of '43. She still holds her title of Queen, only this time it is of the 4-H Fair.

Bill and Chewey are employed by New York's leading publication, The Time Clock. People are constantly referring to the editor as Miss Clock, instead of Glock—Hey! We wondered who'd give Zeke a job.

Doris Dick (you know how these models cling—to their maiden names) is a model on 5th Avenue after gaining experience behind the footlights of the HHS Cooking School. At present she is in the hospital with a broken arm suffered while striking a hard pose. Her doctor is Bob Cox, who if you remember, got his start in the Navy. Assisting him are Mary Ellen Stallsmith and Doris Couch on the day shifts, and Pat Weinley, head night nurse. Guess this night life is really getting Pat down.

Wandering down the hospital corridor, we find "Dutch"—excuse us—Doctor Thorn in his private lab, where he is working on his unique pair of scissors, designed to help babies cut teeth. Just like Edison, he has a wife who keeps his spirits up when he becomes discouraged—you see, Louise would Hav-'r-man.

Jim Delvin, who has turned song writer, has acquired several grey hairs since we last saw him—seems he just can't top that 1943 favorite, "Sara-nade in Blue." "It seems like only yesterday—" but let's not reminisce. He did manage to comply with a request from IU for a song about one of our graduates—Bev is now known as "The Sweetheart of Beta Theta Pi."

While in New York, we'd better take time to shop at the 5-and-10 for some vanishing cream—we're almost out. We thought maybe we'd see Betty Lockwood, cause we heard that she was working here, but she has advanced to the position of private secretary to Mr. McLellan. Rog has begun to think that it is impossible to Turn-er into the domestic type, but he's still hoping.

On the way back to the airport we bump into Marthene Rudicel, who is Arthur Murray's able assistant. Teenie says she is carrying on while Mr. Murray is convalescing from an illness. She is managing the Annual Dance Revue and has received bids from two name bands—namely, Steffy and Oxley. It seems that Paul pulled away from the old gang and slid to fame on his own—trombone.

Leaving New York, we fly over a huge concern (in which we are very concerned) labeled A. B. C. D. Q. P. Dolls. We discover that it stands for the Associated Briggs Clark (Margaret) Distributors of Q. P. Dolls. They are manufacturing these as a courtesy to their old classmates, Jim Hildebrand and Kenny Whitted, who have opened a carnival at the outskirts of the nation's capital. We decided to visit the carnival since Washington was our destination, anyway, and whom should we see at the ticket window but Dawn Aldridge, ably assisted by Bill Parks, who stands "guard" to see that the crowd's "teaming" enthusiasm doesn't cause any foul play. He's caught Bob Pressler and Tom Flaugher trying to sneak in a couple of times—they seem to have a little more trouble than we gremlins. We find the main attraction to be Lois Farley and Thais Coble, the Motorcycle Sizzlers. The Medicine Man, Arnet Wells, has his tent next door just in

Audio Visual Education

These fellows showed us a thing or two—

First Row: Carlos Kennedy, Bob Airgood, Mr. Day, Delbert Huffman.

Second Row: Jim Carroll, Maurice Coopenhaver, Jack Miller, Bob Collins, Lamoine Stults.

Third Row: Bob Smith. DeVon Beitelshees, Tom Keller, Harold Thompson, Rex Michael.

The Audio-Visual Department, this year, was supervised by McCabe Day with Rex Michael as head operator. It seems coincidental that two feature films, "Elephant Boy" and "Zenobia", have had elephants in them. I wonder if Modoc had anything to do with it. The other feature film for the year was "The Barefoot Boy". The money from these films is used to buy educational films for the city schools. Many films were shown for the benefit of the Vocational classes; also some were shown for the different sports groups. Included in the schedule this year were films on defense and war. A March of Time was also shown.

The Class Will

We, the Senior Class of Huntington High School, being reasonably sound in body and fairly sound in mind, do hereby proclaim and ordain this to be our last will and testament. We bequeath the following personal characteristics:

Jim Delvin leaves his height to "Utah" Weber; everything else to a freshman.

Sam Fogel bequeaths his hybrid jokes to anyone who will crack them just for the hominy.

Bill "Zombie" Zeigler leaves with his Ford if he can get it started. (That's why they built the school on a hill.)

"Dutch" Thorn wills reverberant vocal chords to Dick Diffenbaugh.

Dick Haflich and Max Hoch leave pretty much on the same level.

Barbara LaMont bequeaths her mature analytic psychic te'epathic mind to George Ruff who needs it to adequately explain the spontaneous degeneration of Einstein's theory of relativity.

Louis Ann Martin wills her quietness and good nature to "Queenie" Hubley.

George Pontious, Number 1 Woman Hater, bequeaths his shyness of the fairer sex to Ray Humbert.

Margaret Horn leaves with Art Snyder.

Twila Glock, the editor-in-chief of this year book, leaves her journalistic genius to any sucker willing to take it. We're kiddin'.

Robert W. Miltonberger bequeaths his ability to soft soap teachers to Don Smiley, who has found by chemical research that all soap is 90 per cent "lie."

Wayne "Wagon" Wogan wills his ability to study comic books carefully to Jim Hull, who has difficulty in understanding pictures.

Bill "Snuffy" Cathers wills his ability to date a certain sophomore to Arden Peting.

Norma Marchand leaves her ability to interview interviewers to Ruth Stamper.

Mark "Mick" Hammel, who made Red Grange look like Yehudi's uncle's cousin-in-law on the gridiron, leaves his cool head and prolific vocabulary to Fred Geyer.

Patricia Johnson leaves her A's in physics to Jack Beihl, who will hardly get them any other way.

Bill "Apie" Parks leaves his superman muscles and gigantic mass of protoplasm to "Clete" Olinger.

Gloria Wasmuth leaves to find a college man. (Nice work, if you can find a man in college.)

June Barnes (not June Mad) leaves the attendance office looking for another office girl.

Doris Dick leaves the Double Dip to Marjorie Schenkel. Generous girl.

Margaret Clark and Pat Weinley, who have been burning up the boys with their red hair, leave their crimson locks to Jim Bowers. Wouldn't Jim look funny with red hair?

Jane Bash wills her man-handling ability to her sister, who hasn't done so bad anyhow.

Dick "5 by 5" Wamsley leaves his excessive avoirdupois to "Sodder" Hoffman.

Marvin Tousley leaves his collection of pipes to Ed Winter.

With everything rationed, "Sugar" McKain, who still has her good points, leaves the library looking for a librarian.

Glen Smith, aquatic star, leaves the water to Bill Land.

Paul "Super-Smoocher" Oxley, who merits that moniker from his performance in June Mad, leaves a sophomore alone for a while. Wanna bet?

Kenny Whitted wills his 1922 "wolf-buggy" to anyone who will double his money. Don't be a sucker.

Phyllis Carl bequeaths her super-duper ticket sales ability to next year's Senior Queen.

Rex Steffy leaves his very fine dance orchestra, period.

Marilyn Richards leaves Jim Martin. Sad case.

Vernon T. Pinkerton, who is now serving with the U. S. Marines, leaves his "leatherneck" to next year's grid prospects.

Dot Lantis wills her ability to work hard in chemistry to many underclassmen who will need it.

Jim Carr, Dwight Brown, Bob Cox, Dean Kreiger, Bob Kline, Ned Hoke, Doug Bingham, and Joe Hale left us several months ago.

Jim Clark gives the Kroger business back to Mr. Kroger.

Tom Flaugher leaves his "light" complexion to Betty Kreigbaum.

"Bev" Stephan wills her ability to hold a man to Carolyn Paul, who is already doing O. K.

Barbara Landes leaves her bassoon at last.

Ned "Chewy" Roush wills his recent "crew cut" to John Harvey. We believe that this would take care of those four hairs Johnny has so much trouble with.

Rodger Turner leaves for the adventures of life—a happy, contented man.

Bob Cline leaves his car and horns to any junk yard he can force 'em on.

Wilbur Herzog leaves his stolen moments with a certain junior blonde to any one larger than he.

Dottie Day, who as you can remember, was constantly chasing a man in "June Mad," leaves her ability to be chased to Nancy Hughes.

Tom Kelley wills his pitching ability (not baseball) to Bill Eberly.

Art Warner wills his winning smile to someone who needs a library science credit.

Jim Hildebrand leaves his wavy hair to Gene Garber. The way Jim keeps his "crew cuts" we actually believe he doesn't want the Waves. (P. S. He's got Waacs in his ears and Spars that jingle.)

Gloria Bolanz leaves her dreamy, poetic mind to Marvin Kline, who is always sleeping in school.

"Gentleman Jim" Murdock leaves his polished personality to Bill Freed.

"Doc" Seely bequeaths to Jack Lippincott his heavy beard, which even "Caddy" Rankin would have a hard time shaving.

Rex Thorne leaves his ability to argue with Mr. Plasterer to "Ace" Mitchell.

Betty Pressel leaves her studiousness to Marianna Grayston, who could use just a little bit more.

Bob Young leaves his good-naturedness to Jack "Benny" Sorenson.

Bob Pressler just leaves—and is glad of it.

"Arnie" Wells leaves his ability to say a lot in a hurry without much effort to "Duke" Richardson.

Irene Peppas bequeaths her ability to influence teachers to some freshman who has not already mastered the art.

Gene Ann Stonebraker, who "got her cake at the box office" for her fine performance in "June Mad," leaves "Jerry Heindselman to his doom.

"Hoosegaw" Herman Marshall, first string hookey player, wills his natural affinity to the natural pastime to "Si" Purdy.

Evelyn Mickley leaves nothing to some underclassman who needs nothing.

Janete Jones, Phyllis Bartrom, Norma Heald, Helen Lewis, Betty Ruth Meyers, Mildred Stahn, Evalois Burkhardt, Rosemary Denton, Phyllis Roudebush, Willodean Richardson, and Betty Truitt bequeath the ability to "ketch a man" to all junior girls still trying.

Hugh Marshall, Dick Mong, and Eugene "Rusty" Reust leave for the army P. D. Q.

We, the undersigned, leave as soon as the Modulus is distributed to avoid a lynching.

School Diary

Twila (mighty-good editor) asked me to write the diary—but I was just too busy. I can't even keep up my own diary let alone H. H. S.'s. Besides why work if you can find someone else to do it. I couldn't find anybody willing to take on the job. Then I was walking down the hall and there stood the Bulletin Board. What the heck? Old B. B. has been hanging there for years doing nothing but acting as a soft bed for thumb tacks—about time it earned it's "board" and room. So after considerable wraggling it finally consented to do the job. So don't be surprised at what's here. The B. B. is right in the hub of activity, hears a lot of things. Of course, in spite of the activity it's still bare.

I'm not responsible from here on————————.

SCHOOL DIARY

September

8—School opened. Industrious (?) students filled hall. Freshmen gazed at me to find what room they would dash to one-half minute before the tardy bell this year.

9—Students rented books. Looked over new teachers. Miss Ness is now Mrs. Butz. Missing math teachers. Wonder if Buzz and Miss Hoffman forgot today was the big opening.

10—Guess teachers are beginning to give assignments from the looks on the kids' faces. Everybody wearing little red buttons saying "I got one." One what?

11—A season ticket to the football games of course. Am holding a sign saying there will be a Job's Daughter dance at the Temple. First auditorium today opened with Star Spangled Banner. Seems like they sang it with more meaning than the student-body has for a good many years—and why not? We are finally realizing the cost of our freedom.

14—Senior cords (tanish yellow pants to be exact) are beginning to appear as fellows realize that at last they have become seniors and have the distinguished privilege of wearing them. Take a look now if you want to see them clean for if they're true to tradition that won't happen again this year.

15—I gathered from the conversation of the seniors that they organized to-day with Papa Burke—Bruce Gerdes as co-sponsors. Juniors organized finally. Maybe people won't starve next game. The junior and senior Masque and Gavel had a joint meeting last night.

16—Heard hot music coming from gym this evening where Big sisters are entertaining Little sisters. Due to heat and general principles dismissed at 3:15 lately.

17—Yell leaders elected today. Nan Clark, "Shorty" Carl, Harry Clark, and Glen Harsh were the lucky ones. Movie and talk on synthetic rubber.

18—Game tonight. Well, the Vikes tried hard. Third time's a charm. Can't tell what will happen next week.

21—Brrrrrr. Winter has arrived. The heating plant is not working. Most students are going around with only one eye open after a "hard" week-end.

22—Movie this morning. Short periods. Still no heat. "Butch" Hummer, looking mighty nifty in his blue uniform, dropped in this A. M.

23—Not to be outdone by the juniors and seniors the sophomores had class election today. The result was president, Rin Grossman; vice-president, Gibson Gardner; secretary, Ed Wasmuth; treasurer, Cletus Olinger. The sponsor is Coach Williams.

24—Heat—its wonderful! Yes, the heating plant is really on the beam.

25—Wabash-Viking game, rain—mud. The score was 46-6. We don't talk about that.

28—Buzz is back. The Victory Garden Club had a big meeting the other day.

29—We have movies almost every day. Occasionally we even have one in technicolor. It's warm like summer again.

30—Goodbye September. Sophomores had a meeting today. The Hi-Y is planning a hayride Friday. The freshman tea was held and the teachers met the mothers of the girls.

October

1—Sunshine Society officially organized. It's summer again—most students have spring fever.

2—Rain!!—No Hi-Y hayride. The aeronautics class took a trip to the municipal airport inspite of the dampish weather.

5—Good morning. Have a nice week-end? You did. That's fine. Freshmen had an election to-day—Joe Burkhart is the frosh president.

6—G. A. A. Play Day tonight after school. Big time in the gym—apples, cider, and doughnuts too.

7—Sunshine Gales sponsored dance in the gym after school. Admission 2 eggs. The gym was decorated with pretty faces on the wall. We had a fire drill today—got out of 4 minutes of school.

8—Formal S. S. initiation this afternoon. Freshmen and new girls carrying traditional candles. Hi-Y officers went to a convention in Fort Wayne last night.

9—Game tonight—We made another touch down this week. We're still behind the Vikes—win or lose. Big dance at the Masonic Temple. Grads of '42 coming home impressing upon H. H. S. pupils that they are college students now!

12—Jr. Hi-Y and their women went on a hay-ride this evening.

13—Just a normal day—no auditorium—no movie—just school.

14—One week from today—bad news expected. Ah, yes—report cards.

15—Dr. Cardell was here to guide us—goodness knows we need it!

16—Last day of the six weeks, pupils beginning to breathe easier after passing (well taking anyway) first six weeks test. Game tonight at Lima.

19—Air raid shelter system explained to pupils by Air Raid Warden Mr. Brown.

20—Patterettes had their first meeting tonight. Sunshine Glee Club's going to organize tomorrow after school. Football game tomorrow night.

21—Surprise! Teachers don't know everything—they're going to Teachers' Institute Thursday and Friday—no school for two days—all pupils very sad. Report cards this p. m.

26—Back at it again. Game tomorrow night. Masque and Gavel will meet tonight.

27—Game with Bluffton tonight. Yippee-Hurrah—finally came through with a score of 12 to 0.

28—Biology Club went to Lagro State Park via truck to initiate new members.

29—Student council has been organized. They're going to sell defense stamps again this year.

November

2—Ah—'Tis November—

3—The Hi-Y is sponsoring a slogan each week. This is No Smoking Week. Air Raid Drill today.

4—

6—Last football game tonight. We beat Peru.

9—Papas and Mamas are coming up tonight to see what its all about—and how our school hours are spent! Heaven forbid!

10—This is National Education Week. We had an air raid drill today. Guess it went off O. K.

11—Today is Armistice Day. Judge Elect O'Malley gave an address. Let's hope the next Armistice will be more lasting.

12—

16—This is National Book Week.

17—

18—The Masque and Gavel gave a play this morning in the auditorium in connection with Book Week.

19—The best book ————————.
Most popular magazine ————————.
Mrs. Everett Hood gave a book review for the student body. The Masque and Gavel went to a speech conference at Purdue.

20—Faculty book-week tea.

23—Only three days of this week.

24—First basketball game. Vikings and Warren. Our second game—C. I. C. is Friday night. Vikes travel to Warsaw.

25—Thanksgiving program by the Mary White Guild. Guess we Young Americans have a lot to be thankful for.

December

1—Program in auditorium ————————. The G. A. A. held their initiation in the gym—they had a potluck at 6:00.

2—By the way, this is Hi-Y Clean Scholarship Week. All seniors and juniors are going to take ability and aptitude tests to find out something—senior students reclassified as high grade morons.

3—Br Br Indian Summer's really over—Slacks seem to be quite the thing regardless of sex—there were one or two babes—(pardon! feminine students) wearing skirts.

4—Zowee! We beat Wabash, it was a fight FIGHT to the finish. Everybody celebrated the victory by going to the big dance at the Temple—What? —Why Rex Steffy's Orchestra played of course.

7—Remember Pearl Harbor—That's what the people of U. S. (include H. S. students) made the Japs do by purchasing Stamps and Bonds.

8—Arithmetic Tests tomorrow. For people who don't pass there's a nice refresher course all fixed up.

9—There are rumors of shifting to a 7-period day next year. Nothing official yet.

10—Well about 17 per cent of the Jrs. and Srs. passed the test. There's talk about a 7-period day, as if they don't work us hard enough.

11—Game with Rochester. The Vikes were in there scrapping.

14—One more week of this stuff.

15—Be good kids—Santa's watching you. So are the hall monitors.

16—Physical exams today. Juniors and Seniors were stripped and checked. Seems as if they ate a pretty hearty lunch.

17—There'll be a White Christmas Dance in the Gym Wednesday the 22nd. I hear they're to have a box of snow flakes. Girls can ask fellows.

18—The Band and Choir gave a musical Christmas program to some 600 restless students—see you next year—Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

January

4—Here we go—with a nice new year to begin on. Most students have at least one eye open. Nearly everyone welcomed the New Year officially at Job's Daughters-Demolay Snow Ball at the Masonic—New Years Eve.

5—Game with Berne—there.

6—The White Christmas everyone was dreaming about finally got here—snow. Just a trifle late.

7—The Senior play has been chosen. It's a comedy.

8—The Vikes tangled with Burris of Muncie at the gym. They came out on the short end of the tangle.

11—Committees have been appointed for the Sweetheart Dance. Start looking for a man, gals.

12—Physical Ed program explained and demonstrated in the auditorium.

13—Mr. Brenn talked this morning concerning the part of high school students in defense.

14—Vernon Pinkerton and Joe Hale have left school to join the Marines.

15—Game with Hartford City.

18—For a small extra charge, 10 cents to be exact, students can have their Modulus personalized by having their name on it.

19—Dwight Brown is now in the Army training to be a meterologist.

20—The Senior play cast has been chosen—practice will start soon on "June Mad."

21—Spent this morning getting rid of the books the students have been lugging around for 18 weeks. No school this P. M.

22—Report Cards.

25—Here we go, starting all over again—second semester. Rented more books to carry around.

26—Rev. Hutchinson spoke this morning.

27—Students are getting settled in the new routine.

28—This new physical training program is really something—push ups, deep knee bends and liver squeezes are being enjoyed or should I say endured by all upper classmen.

29—Jim Carr left for the army training in meterology—practically a college education packed into a few months.

February

1—There was a usual newcast this morning in the auditorium to welcome freshmen.

2—The victory garden club are really going into action! They're having some sort of a contest—two teams are Tomato Worms and Corn Borers.

3—The Senior Hi-Y were to have a date night tonight, but for some reason they postponed it until next Wednesday!

4—The gals are being patriotic this year. No corsages at the Sweetheart Dance. The Binkley orchestra from Fort Wayne is furnishing the music.

5—There was a technicolor movie concerning boy scouts during guidance period. Next week in National Boy Scout Week. The Vikings will scrap with Central of Fort Wayne tonight, there.

8—The Mary White Guild is having a potluck tonight. The S. S. S. will have one tomorrow night.

9—Rev. McKain spoke to the student body this morning. The movies are getting hi-class. Jimmy Stewart was in one concerning the air corps today. The Vikes beat Plymouth!

10—Dr. Liddle spoke during guidance period explaining the guidance of tomorrow. There's a question box in the hall.

11—Today was a very special and very different one. Dr. Liddle, State Y. M. C. A. Secretary, talked to and with the students concerning any problems that high school people might have. Too bad he didn't have time for more personal interviews.

12—Newcast presented a "radio" play honoring Lincoln's birthday. The Vikes are doing all right they defeated Alexandria' 35-32 Friday. There are two home games this week-end.

15—No movies, no auditorium, no periods cut—no it can't be—yet it was—A Normal Day of School.

16—Kenny Whitted, Tom Kelley and Glen Smith went to Chicago last week-end. Kenny made the Navy Air Corps.

17—Cooking School is being held in the auditorium this week. Students look in the auditorium doors and drool.

18—The Sunshine Council, composed of officers, committee chairmen, and teacher sponsor, had a luncheon this noon.

19—The Biology Club had a party last night. The Vikes were beaten by North Side. Probably they were saving their steam for the big games next week-end.

22—Washington's Birthday. The history department had a program in the auditorium. Arthur Sapp spoke, Mr. Merriweather sang some negro spirituals, and a group of Central kids did the minuet, not to mention some other numbers by H. H. S. students.

23—We had an excellent program today. It was a magician who baffled all of us with a locked box trick.

24—In honor of National Brotherhood Week, three laymen, a Protestant, a Catholic, and a Jew spoke to the students concerning their religion.

25—Had a big pep session to let those Vikes know we're behind them. See you all at the tourney.

March

1—Andrews took the tourney. The Vikes were in there fighting to the very last minute.

2—Rev. Meckstroth spoke this morning. A Victory Corps is being started here in high school.

3—Mr. Bash talked to the juniors and seniors about personality in business. Mr. Buzzard's navigation class is giving a two day demonstration of the principles of navigation to Miss Cage's senior literature class.

4—There was a call for Senior Queen nominees this morning. The Senior Queen will be the gal who sells the most tickets to the Senior play, "June Mad." The English classes were guests of the case. We were rather surprised to find Arnie in this profession, but his last name might have a psychological affect on some people. Rex Thorne, the barker—though his bark still sounds like a howl, furnished us with some of the latest gossip. He tells us that Sarah Lee Winters and Jean Powell quit the show; it seems they just weren't the "carnivorous" type. Before we leave we must get one of those Miltonberger Meltin'-burgers, for they simply melt in your mouth.

We'd better leave the carnival now, for it looks like rain. Let's stop in at the Weather Bureau across the street to find out what those black clouds in the west really mean. Golly, maybe they were spots before our eyes; we must be seeing things—not two more of the class of '43. Yes, Dwight Brown and Jim Carr are the nation's leading weather men. They are using their knowledge of meteorology to determine weather or not the Days are cold. (How 'bout that, Dotty?) Their secretary, Betty Rudig, is kept busy answering the complaints of those who were caught in the rain without umbrellas. Her most frequent grumbler is Glen Smith, who just won't go near the water.

In Washington, we find June Ellen Barnes and Irene Peppas, who alternately take attendance in Congress. Irene seems to have difficulty with 5th District Representative Bingham, but June Ellen seemingly has no trouble at all keeping track of him. Wonder why?

While in Congress, we talk—the word is listen!—to Norma Marchand, now Speaker of the House—wonder how she's doing in her own domicile?

We expected to find Sam Fogel around here someplace giving Norma some competition, but we learn he is in Hollywood. It is "plane" to us that the next step should be a cross continent flight, since we really must find out what Sam is doing in Hollywood. He tells us he has devoted his entire life to perfecting that long low whistle. Apparently he has failed in his efforts as he is still a confirmed bachelor. We suggested to Sam that he write to Randall Mattern for the copy of "India's Love Lyrics" since Randall seems more interested in Trigger-nometry than in poetry anyway.

Hays office has added a new syllable to its name—The Hay-flich Censor Bureau is Dick's own private concern. Stoney is always censuring him for censoring her best love scenes. She is waiting for Bill Cathers to star opposite her, repeating the winning combination featured in that flaming love scene at the close of "June Mad."

We leave Stoney still waiting because we have one more town to hit. We've hit three of the most important cities, but we'll be glad to return to the town we all think is most important.

Huntington has changed just a trifle, we observe as we walk down the main stem. Phyllis Roudebush has just opened a new "Miller-nery Shop." Her head-clerk, Margaret, is always trying to "Sell" the latest creations of Eloise Parker and Dot Griffith. Did we say trying? It's a cinch to sell their hats. Once in awhile, however, Jean Poorman, another clerk, has sold the wrong number to the right woman—must be a hang-over from Jean's days in the telephone office.

Another addition to Huntington is the Pressel Pretzel factory. Betty is continually blessing the day that she hired Marv Tousley and "Doc" Seely as publicity managers. They're always thinking of some new twist for their advertising schemes.

While on the subject of industry, Margie Jentoft and Mary Jane Chenoweth "drew" the attention of the higher-ups at Caswell's and are now higher-ups themselves. They are supervising a drafting course, and we find drifting through it Margaret Russo, Virginia Wilhelm, Melba Schenkel, Doris Williams, Naomi Wacknitz, and Joyce Rindchen.

Speaking of the outskirts of the metropolis—we weren't, but let's—Jane Bash, who has taken over the Bash farms, is looking very "chick" this p. m. She takes us for a tour of the "Busy Biddy" barnyard. In an adjoining field we see Dot Lantis plowing corn. Jane explains that she has no difficulty persuading Dot to work since she brought the "John Dear" tractor. The leading product of the farm is Herzog's hogs. Bill is in charge of all the livestock, but Art Snyder, the stable boy, is always "Horn-ing" in with suggestions concerning the management.

The sight that really makes our hair lose it "coil" is seeing Marilyn Richards as head of Roanoke's largest—excuse us—Roanoke's large factory. They've really been drumming up business with Lowell Ellabarger as business manager, and things run in "sweet" harmony since "Sugar" McKain has become his secretary. Tom Kelley is still the office boy, but by making eyes at Gloria Bolanz at the switch-board, his luck may switch to the more fortunate strain.

Another '43 graduate who has migrated beyond the last row of petunias is Gloria Wasmuth, who has taken over her dad's cabinet factory. They say she's quite a Kitchen Maid herself these days. She needn't fear leaving her office, even though her roster of employees includes Bob Cline, Hugh Marshall, George Pontious, and Dean Robinson, for she can depend on her capable secretary, Virginia Ledman. Her trouble at present is that Art Warner is constantly raising a Rowe about his low wages. No doubt he'll soon be carrying his complaints to the County Judge, Jim Clark, and his jury composed of the Betties Endsley and Garretson, the Johnsons Colleen, Patty, and Martha, Lois Ann Martin, and Helen Durham. We don't doubt your integrity, Jim, but we're wondering how you managed to get a jury of so many females.

At this point we pause—the pause that refreshes. We'll eat with the elite at Mick's Kitchen, owned by the Hammels, Mick and Mick.

Well, our paper's almost gone and we can't write on a full stomach, so we'd better call it a day. No kiddin', kids, it's great to get back to Hoosier soil, but we had a swell trip and really enjoyed the senior-y.

'Bye now,

Your pals, the gremlins,

Alias

those boys in Hi-Y, "Thanks a million, fellows. It was really appreciated and we all promise that you'll never consider it a foolish and wasteful gift." Another precedent was broken by the Senior class which contributed ten dollars to the donation. Several meetings of the entire society were held to make announcements about this fund, and evidently none of these was in vain.

To get on with the other committees in this large yet active society, we shall turn to the M. M. S. Committee. This is headed by Mary Esther Dunkin and sponsored by three very generous and capable teachers, Mrs. Roush, Miss Lush, and Miss Sees. The White Chistmas Ball held at the high school gym on December 23 and the annual Sweetheart Dance at the Masonic Temple on February 6 were both sponsored by this, the "money making" committee. With the proceeds they purchased a twenty-five dollar war bond. That famous week known as Peanut Week was under the direction of girls who represented this organization.

The dramatic organization of the Sunshine Society is the Patterettes. Their leader is Norma Marchand, and Mrs. Wallace Patterson has been their sponsor. This fine group of "young women" has given several plays to both civic organizations and to the student body of the high school. To them we owe both shrieks of laughter and "pools" of tears.

The religious group of H. H. S. is the Mary White Guild which is headed by Betty Pressel and Mrs. Hillegas as sponsor. As was done in previous years, this organization had charge of the Thanksgiving program and also of the religious gatherings that were held in the auditorium during the Christmas season and all during Holy Week at Easter time.

The Needlework Guild has not lowered its good reputation of previous years this year since they have been just as active and have done just as much for the local and national Needlework Guilds in the way of making garments for the annual roundup. This organization was headed by June Ellen Barnes and was sponsored by Miss Alice Kline.

The Sunshine Glee Club has been made up of "quite the hard workers." Every week these girls would get together after school and give forth their "voices of gold." The sponsor of this club was Miss Geraldine Zahn.

The Big and Little Sister Committee, as in years before, has been the "guiding light" for all incoming freshmen girls. This committee was headed by Twila Glock and Janet Vickery. The group's sponsor was Miss Lush.

Last but far from least is the S. S. S. Committee. They carry on the social services of the society. Many of its members were freshmen and they very enthusiastically entered into the spirit of sending cards to all the sick and the "Mrs. Miniver" rose to those bereaved. This committee was under the leadership of Betty Rudig and under the sponsorship of Miss Kline.

Thus ends a brief writeup of the committees of the Sunshine Society of Huntington High School. To them, all of the success and popularity of the society is indebted.

Departmental Club this p. m. to hear Mr. McCormick talk on books.

5—There was quite a movie program today—Alcoholism, Point Rationing, and Global Navigation, and a singin' fest of "Anchors Aweigh."
